

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
Southern District of California

WILLARD WESTFALL, individually and on behalf of the Purported Class,) No. 06-CV-02343-BEN (NLS) Appellant,) ORDER DENYING MOTION TO STAY
PROCEEDINGS PENDING APPEAL
[Dkt.Nos. #14, 17, 18, 25, 27, 30]
v.)
MII LIQUIDATION INC.,) Appellee.)

Appellant Willard Westfall (“Appellant”) appeals a Bankruptcy Court’s order denying the class portion of one of Appellant’s claims submitted in the underlying bankruptcy case. Appellant filed his Notice of Appeal on October 19, 2006. The following day, Appellant filed a Motion to Stay Proceedings Pending Appeal in the Bankruptcy Court. After a full hearing on the issue, the Bankruptcy Court denied Appellant’s request on December 20, 2006.

Appellant now seeks the same relief from this Court and requests that this Court grant Appellant’s Motion to Stay Proceedings Pending Appeal. “An appellant seeking a discretionary stay pending appeal under Bankruptcy Rule 8005 must prove: (1) appellant is likely to succeed on the merits of the appeal; (2) appellant will suffer irreparable injury; (3) no substantial harm will come to appellee; and (4) the stay will do no harm to the public interest.” In re Irwin, 338 B.R. 839, 843 (E.D. Cal. 2006) (internal quotation and citation omitted). “The party moving for a stay has the

1 burden on each of these elements.” Id. (internal quotation and citation omitted). The failure to
 2 meet any one of these four elements requires denial of the motion. See id.

3 “When a bankruptcy court has ruled on the issue of a stay of its order pending appeal, the 4 district court, sitting as an appellate court, reviews that decision for abuse of discretion.” Id.
 5 (internal quotation and citation omitted) Discretion is only abused when the judicial action is 6 arbitrary, fanciful, or unreasonable; or put another way, discretion is abused only where no
 7 reasonable person would take the view adopted by the trial court. See id.

8 Here, Appellant is unable to show that a stay is warranted. The Bankruptcy Judge found that 9 issuing a stay would destroy the pending settlement process and the existing momentum would be
 10 lost resulting in substantial harm to the estate. (Transcript of December 8, 2006, Hearing at 41:7-11 18, Appellant’s Ex. C.) The Bankruptcy Judge’s findings are entitled to substantial deference and 12 should not be set aside under the abuse of discretion standard. See In re Irwin, 338 B.R. at 843-44.

13 Therefore, for the reasons discussed above, Appellant’s Motion to Stay Proceedings Pending
 14 Appeal is DENIED. Further, Appellant’s Motion for Leave to File a Supplemental Memorandum in 15 Support of Motion to Stay Proceedings Pending Appeal and Appellant’s Ex Parte Application for 16 Order Shortening Time to Respond to Motion for Leave to File a Supplemental Memorandum in 17 Support of Motion to Stay Proceedings Pending Appeal are both DENIED as moot. Appellee’s
 18 Motion for Leave to File Additional Documents in Response to Appellant’s Reply to Memorandum
 19 of Points and Authorities in Support of Motion to Stay Proceedings Pending Appeal is also 20 DENIED as moot. Lastly, Official Indemnities Committee’s Motion to Intervene or in the 21 Alternative, for Amicus Curiae Status and their Ex Parte Motion to Shorten Time are both DENIED
 22 as moot.

23 IT IS SO ORDERED.

24 DATED: May 2, 2007
